Gospel Reflection

September 30, 2012

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Nm 11:25–29; Ps 19:8, 10, 12–13, 14
Jas 5:1–6; Mk 9:38–43, 45, 47–48

The Book of Numbers, narrating Israel's time in the wilderness after receiving the Commandments, tells us that God took some of the "spirit that was on Moses" and "bestowed it on the seventy elders". Two of those selected to receive the spirit are not at the Tent of Meeting, yet they too receive the spirit and also prophesy. Joshua becomes upset at this, but Moses corrects him. The fact that they too are prophesying (singing God's praises) is something Moses wishes would happen to all the people. The elders are selected to support Moses in his work, and the spirit will enable them to do it effectively. This story shows us that God is not constrained by human limitations. In an echo of one of Luke's "woes" (6:24–26, paired with his Beatitudes), James calls the rich to "weep and wail over your impending miseries". The things of this world are transitory. These rich persons, who have made their wealth on the backs of others, will face God's judgment. Like Jesus, our author does not condemn all the rich, only those who are greedy and exploit others. Like the rich fool (Lk 12:16–21), they depend on their own wealth, rather than on the gracious mercy of God, to save them. Withholding wages from their workers, they have grown rich in the things of the world, but their wealth "will devour [their] flesh like a fire" on the day of judgment.

Like Joshua in the story from Numbers, the apostle John in the Gospel story is upset because someone who is not among their number is "driving out demons in [Jesus's] name". Jesus chastises John for not realizing that "whoever is not against us is for us". His saying about cutting off one's hand reminds us that admittance to the reign of God is worth whatever sacrifice we are called to make.

For Reflection: We all have different gifts; am I grateful for my own or jealous of the gifts of others? Do I depend more on God's riches or on the things of this world?

Faith Formation

Generations of Faith News

Our October session will be on the funeral liturgy. This is a beautiful and comforting liturgy that many of us have never had the opportunity to unpack and explore. We will look at the prayers, the scripture, the rituals that are specific to funerals and there may be a few surprises to celebrate the upcoming Halloween/ All Saints/ All Souls celebration! We will meet on October 14th @ 10:15 AM or October 15th @ 6:00 PM in the gym of the parish center. All in the parish are invited. You do not need to be a family with school age children to attend GOF. We welcome all parishioners. The fee is $12.00 per session if you just want to come and check us out.

Students with text books should have the first four chapters completed. Sacramental preparation schedules will be available for pick-up at the October meeting.

Adult Faith Sharing

We are currently reading the letters of Paul. All adults in the parish are invited to join us as we follow Paul's travels, talks, and imprisonments throughout his very colorful ministry. We meet at 9:15 AM in the parish center formation office on Thursday mornings (1st door on the left as you walk in).

Election Season 2012

The First Amendment protects the right of all Americans, religious leaders included, to speak out on religious, moral and political issues. However, houses of worship and other nonprofit entities classified under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Service Tax Code are barred from endorsing or opposing candidates for public office and may not intervene directly or indirectly in partisan campaigns.

Any activity designed to influence the outcome of a partisan election can be construed as intervention. If the IRS determines that your house of worship has engaged in unlawful intervention, it can revoke the institution's tax-exempt status or levy significant fines on the house of worship or its leaders.

Have you ever wondered...

At what point should we stand up before the Gospel reading?

What are the words we say before the Eucharistic Prayer?

What is the Eucharistic Prayer?

If you would like to find out the answers to these questions and more, a short workshop on the structure of the mass will be offered on Saturday, October 13th from 10 to 11:30am. Light refreshments will be provided. Please contact Cindy Foreman at 374-7160 or email cindyelsaforeman@gmail.com to register.

Did you know?

Did you know that since June 2008 a small group of about 12 women have made over 480 Prayer Shawls and Lap Robes and 73 Baptism Blankets.

For more information about joining this active group contact Anita Wandishin at 219-365-9147.

Holy Name Mission Statement

Holy Name Parish is a thriving Roman Catholic community that strives to create a welcoming atmosphere for many people from diverse cultures and various backgrounds.

Using our time, talent and treasures, we are committed to responsible stewardship and financial accountability.

We nourish our Catholic faith through our weekly sharing in the Eucharist; strengthened through intergenerational faith formation.

Empowered by the Holy Spirit, we dedicate ourselves to the service of those most in need, by being Disciples of Christ in the world.
